

JUDGE CURRANTRIES FIRST CASE UNDER NEW STATE DRY LAW

Negro Pleads Guilty to Manufacturing Liquor For Sale and is Given Lowest Fine in Police Court—Caught in Lewis.

Constable Charles Moore, of Lewis county, arrived here Tuesday morning with John Morton, colored, who he had arrested at Holly in Lewis county Monday afternoon. Morton was connected with the Maggie Robinson case of moonshining. The woman, who was arrested and held to the grand jury when a moonshine outfit was found in her house, said the outfit belonged to Morton, who made his escape into Lewis county.

Moore was taken immediately before Police Judge Harry C. Curran for an examination and he entered a plea of guilty to the charge of manufacturing liquor for the purpose of sale. Under the new state law which gives lower courts jurisdiction in such cases and which was signed by Governor Edwin P. Morrow only last Friday, Judge Curran assessed a fine of one hundred dollars and a jail sentence of thirty days.

The new state law gives police and magistrate courts final jurisdiction over such cases and does away with the expensive holding of prisoners taken up on such charges until the next session of the grand jury.

Moore was committed to the local jail and will likely prove a very valuable witness for the Commonwealth in the case against the woman.

FIRST MORTGAGES.

We offer First Mortgage investments of the highest character. In every loan offered, the soundness of value, title to property and standing of the borrower have been thoroughly investigated and approved by the officers and attorneys of this bank before being accepted as our own investments.

These investments are offered to the public with our highest recommendation. They bear interest at the rate of six per cent. This rate, considering the high type and large margin of security in these loans, is unusually attractive.

Investment in these mortgage loans helps finance the community, and the security is right here at home where you can make personal investigation if you want to.

FAMOUS HOG-PEN CASE THROWN OUT OF COURT TUESDAY

Test Case Involving City's Right to Abolish Hog-pens From Sixth Ward Is Dismissed in Circuit Court.

Hard fought battles in the City court were brought to mind Tuesday morning when Circuit Judge C. D. Newell dismissed the appeal of Hutchinson vs. the City of Maysville for a want of prosecution.

It will be remembered that in 1916 the City Board of Health made quite a campaign against hog-pens as nuisances in the Sixth ward. Several owners of these pens were brought into City Court on charge of maintaining nuisances and fined. The case against M. C. Hutchinson, Sixth ward grocer, was taken as a test and was to be carried to the higher courts for an interpretation of the agreement between the City of Maysville and the town of Chester when they came together. Mr. Hutchinson was fined twenty dollars and costs and he appealed. The fine was suspended pending appeal but the city did not force a trial on appeal.

The case was tried on August 22, 1916, and the appeal was taken in September, 1916. Judge Newell ruled that the case had been on the docket long enough and dismissed it.

The appeal of Sam Mullikin, who was fined in the City Court on a prohibition charge, was also dismissed for a want of prosecution.

The indictment against Walter Runyan for deserting infant children was dismissed on motion of the Commonwealth.

Robert Prather's bond was ordered forfeited. He was charged with obtaining property falsely.

In the case of Amos Britton, indicted for keeping and furnishing a barn to be used for a chicken fight, the law and facts were submitted and a fine of fifty dollars and costs were assessed. The petit jury for the spring term of Circuit Court was impaneled by Judge C. D. Newell Tuesday morning and is composed of the following gentlemen: A. M. Peed, C. F. Reed, Tom Brannon, Charles Applegate, Adrian Suit, W. H. Moore, George H. Dinger, Phillip Gallenstein, James Davenport, William Newell, J. P. Graybill, Pat Comer, B. F. Paul, A. H. Thompson, Aaron Gifford, A. C. Coryell, N. S. Caldwell, John O. Wilson, H. S. Jefferson, J. L. Wheeler, J. D. Borton, G. S. Strode, W. A. Hitt and E. G. Downing.

20-GALLON STILL AND MUCH MASH IS TAKEN BY OFFICERS

Largest Moonshine Still Yet Found in Mason County Taken on Lawrence Creek Farm By Officials Tuesday Morning.

Constable Perrine Osborne, Special Officer Fred Wells and Squire Fred W. Bauer raided the home of James Morton, colored tenant on the farm of Mr. Andrew Huber on Lawrence Creek near Moransburg, about noon Tuesday and captured the largest moonshine still and probably the best whiskey making outfit yet taken in this county.

The tank was a twenty gallon copper can made especially for the business. The tank and coil was found in the attic of the tenant house. One gallon and two quarts of moonshine liquor was found hidden between the bed clothing in Morton's bed while in the corner of the attic was found a fifty gallon barrel of mash. The barrel was entirely full.

Morton was arrested by the officers and brought to Maysville. He does not deny the ownership of the still but says he used it only to make liquor for his own use. The entire outfit is copper and is very clean. It is not only the largest but the best looking outfit yet taken here.

APPROPRIATION TO RIVER IMPROVEMENT INCREASED

House Disregards Committee's Recommendation and Increases Rivers and Harbors Allowance.

Washington, March 28. — Disregarding recommendations of the Budget Bureau and of the Appropriations Committee, the House Monday by a three-to-one vote, added $15,000,000 to the amount carried in the measure for river and harbor improvements.

An amendment to increase a lump sum allotment from $27,635,260 to $42,815,661 was offered by Chairman Dempsey of the Rivers and Harbors Committee, and was adopted by a vote of 158 to 56, after three hours of acrimonious debate, during which forty members aired their views. The vote on the amendment was along sectional rather than party lines, Republicans splitting on the proposal, while most of the Democrats favored it.

The discussion was so protracted that a final vote on the bill could not be reached yesterday. The measure probably will come to a final vote today, with opponents of the Dempsey amendment privileged, under House rules, to demand a record vote on the increase at the last minute.

In doing business with a bank the customer not only likes politeness, but also wants the greatest protection he can get. The Bank of Maysville fills the bill in both of these respects. Its officers and employees are accommodating, attentive and polite, while its capital, surplus and assets are the largest of any bank in this section of the country. 21Mar-1t

CITY GOVERNMENT IS CONSIDERED BY OUR WOMEN VOTERS

Necessity of the Best City Council, the Backbone of Municipal Government, Is Considered by Women Voters' League.

Very interesting and instructive was the meeting of the Mason County League of Women Voters held Monday afternoon at the Central Presbyterian church. Mrs. George Longnecker, the president, presided and quite a number of the members were present.

Municipal government was the general topic under discussion and the chief address was made by Hon. A. D. Cole who spoke on "How Our Municipal Government Functions." After tracing the development of Anglo-Saxon Government, Mr. Cole explained how our present municipal government is related to the old Anglo-Saxon idea.

Mr. Cole's address was followed by a very helpful round table discussion in which the new voters came to realize that the backbone of all municipal administration is our City Council. The necessity of good men on the city's fiscal and legislative board was fully realized and the women will endeavor to induce citizens of the highest type to enter the race. It was also intimated that there should be councilwomen on this board.
